Zealandia Saturday Evening.

Although the Oceanic steamer Zealandia had not entered San Francisco at the time the China left, local shipping people think that she would have arrived that night in time to give the San Francisco stevedores an opportunity to discharge and reload the vessel so that she could leave again for Honolulu on schedule time. If this is done the steamer will probably arrive here on Saturday evening with three days' later news than was brought by the Pacific Mail liner China. An afternoon paper stated yesterday that Chief Officer Gansberg stated that the China sighted the Zealandia outside the Golden Gate, yet the same officer, the purser, the third officer, and freight clerk of the China all stated on Tuesday evening that the vessel had not been sighted. Mr. Whitney, of the Oceanic Company, stated yesterday that the agents here received no advice by the China as to sighting the Zealandia.

The Nevada.

The Nevada is expected to arrive from Kahului on Sunday to finish loading here, and depart the same evening for San Francisco carrying the mails.
